Remembering the Holocaust

A SUMMER SYMPOSIUM FOR EDUCATORS, STUDENTS, AND COMMUNITY MEMBERS

Free and open to the public

PURPOSE AND GOAL

To provide public school teachers, university faculty, students, and community members with information and insights about the victims, perpetrators, and consequences of the Nazi Holocaust.

The symposium provides approximately forty hours of lectures, workshops, discussions, films, and demonstrations.

Applications for teacher scholarships are available on our website. Teachers who complete all forty hours receive four CEUs.

A detailed symposium agenda is available on the Center's website:

<http://holocaust.appstate.edu>

or may be obtained by calling the Center's office:
(828) 262-2311

Notice: Schedule subject to possible change.
