

Concordia Presents

Spring 2011

Teaching about the Holocaust in a Global Context

Concordia International School Shanghai is hosting a teacher-training workshop and community lifelong learning event focusing on the history of the Holocaust and Shanghai as a haven for refugees during the war.

Time: September 15-17, 2011

Location: Concordia International School Shanghai

Featured speakers include:

Dr. Eva Fogelman, author of Conscience and Courage: Rescuers of Jews During the Holocaust. Dr. Fogelman will speak on the psychology and history of the people who defied German law during the Third Reich and took righteous action.

Manli Ho, Researcher and daughter of Dr. Feng Shan Ho, Chinese Consul General in Vienna, 1938-1940 (Picture below). Ms. Ho will speak on the actions of her father, diplomatic rescue during the Holocaust, and Shanghai as a refuge for those in need.

Goals of the workshop: To gather educational professionals from the international school community throughout Asia for a three-day teacher-training workshop on how to teach about the Holocaust, genocide, and related issues. Additionally, with the participation of Manli Ho and Dr. Fogelman, the topic of rescue, what led to righteous action, and Shanghai serving as a refuge for thousands will be covered.

Teachers who would like more information, please contact Mark Johnson at Mark.Johnson@ciss.com.cn

With support from:

UNITED STATES
HOLOCAUST
MEMORIAL MUSEUM

THE JEWISH FOUNDATION for the righteous